++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Warm with sunny spells and a few showers.

Today:
A bright start, before cloud and patchy rain approaches from the west later in the morning, though occasional breaks allow for sunny spells, especially in southern areas. Some isolated showers in the south later, but remaining dry elsewhere. Feeling warm. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Tonight:
This evening will see any showers in the south of the region gradually clear eastwards, with patchy rain continuing in northern parts. Low cloud developing around some coasts and hills. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Thursday:
Patchy rain in northernmost areas through the day, with sunny spells in the south, but scattered showers here later. Feeling warm, but breezier than recently. Dry overnight. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Sunny spells for most, but with some patchy rain on Friday. Bright and settled on Saturday. Warmest on Sunday, largely dry with sunny spells. A risk of some coastal fog.
